Tory Hill store is lost

The third major fire in two weeks destroyed a Tory Hill landmark last Thursday morning.

Finlay's General Store was the fuel of the New Year's Eve blaze that was sparked by an overheated frying pan in the kitchen. Minden OPP Constable Jim Solway said the fire started just before 11 a.m. and burned well into the night.

The Monmouth Fire Department responded to the blaze but was unable to save the 78-year-old building. Only a few walls were left standing when the fire was finally doused.

The General Store, owned by Emad Elamad, also housed the Tory Hill Post Office. No one was hurt in the fire, but everything in the building was lost.

The New Year's Eve blaze was the third major fire in Haliburton County during the Christmas holidays. On December 27, the home of Bill and Sue Little in Lochlin, owners of the Lochlin General Store, burned to the ground. A second fire last Wednesday destroyed a house on Orde Street in Minden owned by Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Deacon.

Finlay's General Store was founded in 1892, when Tory Hill was a centre for that area's logging industry. A fire in October of 1910 had once destroyed the building, but it was rebuilt within a month.

The store was owned and operated for five generations by the Finlay family until it was bought in 1896 by John and Jackie Elamad.

Home destroyed in blaze

A fire Wednesday evening destroyed the home of Eldon and Mabel Deacon on Orde Street in Minden. The couple were not at home when the blaze erupted close to 6 p.m. Fire officials speculate that the blaze was caused when the logs in a wood stove shifted causing the door of the appliance to open. Judging by the damage, firemen estimate the fire had been smouldering for a number of hours before it was noticed by a neighbour. Damage to the structure was estimated at more than $75,000. There were no injuries among the firefighters, although the crew had to contend with extremely cold temperatures and gusty winds while bringing the blaze under control.

100 teams expected

Once again Minden is bracing for the arrival of close to 100 dog teams, their drivers and hundreds of spectators as the community hosts the fourth annual Martin Minden Sled Dog Derby. The two days of racing take place this Saturday and Sunday.

As usual the races will be starting on the community's Main Street. On Saturday, the races start at 11 a.m. while the Sunday start has been set for 12:30 p.m. Spectators are invited to line the chute on the Main Street downtown, or across the bridge, for an excellent view of the teams as they head off and return from the eight and four mile courses.

This year, the teams will be competing for a total purse of $10,000 provided by the race's major sponsor, Martin Pet Foods of Elmira.

Area residents are reminded that traffic flow over the bridge will be reduced to a single lane during the race days. Organizers suggest using the Bobcaygeon Road, Scotch Line and Highway 35 to avoid the congestion at that point. Traffic marshals will be in place on the bridge to ensure the traffic moves as freely as possible during the weekend. Organizers have also requested that pet owners leave their animals at home. Dogs along the race route could easily distract a racing team causing injury to the animals, spectators and driver.

"We are looking forward to a fun and exciting weekend," Race Co-ordinator Valerie Lougheed said. "I hope many people come out to cheer on the drivers and their teams."

(For additional articles on the Minden Sled Dog Derby, see the second section to today's newspaper).

Looking back

The year 1987 was an exceptionally active year in Haliburton County, packed with events, important decisions and much progress.

This week, The Times takes a look back at the events that made 1987 a year to remember. See pages 7, 9, 11, 12 for a brief overview of the year's activities.

Times meets Hartwick tonight

The league leading Times team will be struggling to ward off their biggest challenger tonight at the Minden arena as they take on Hartwick. Construction in one of the most important games of the season.

With just four weeks left in the Men's Recreational League schedule,

The Times hold a two-game lead. However, Hartwick is hot on a seven-game winning streak and is hoping to cut the margin in half with a win at 7 p.m. tonight.

Hartwick moved into a tie for second place in the standings last Monday when their win over Home Hardware was matched with a loss by Halls Insurance to The Times. In the third game of the night, the Rockcliffe fell further off the pace with an upset loss to Vasey Real Estate.

The final few weeks of the season should prove to be interesting. Halls and Hartwick will likely have to win all their games to end the season in first place, while The Times can afford to lose two. These top three teams will meet each other once more before the season closes.

Hartwick 13, Home 7

Hartwick's 13 - 7 win over Home Hardware last Monday moved them into a tie for second place in the standings, while the loss puts Home into sole possession of the basement. Hartwick's win here also avenged an earlier loss by default to Home.

Top guns Dave Hartwick and Brian Shaw again paved the way for Hartwick's win with four goals each. On the opposite end of the ice, Carl Northey and Scott Hamilton were doing their share of damage, each notching a hat-trick for Home.

Hartwick's Irwin Asbell scored three goals of his own while teammates Rick Salmon and Bart Hilhorst each added one to the victory. Greg Carpenter scored the seventh goal for Home.

Times 5, Halls 3

The Times finally justified their first place standing by downing the strong Halls squad 5 - 3 and bumping their challengers one more game off the pace.

Although The Times has held a share of first place for most of the season, Monday's game against Halls was the team's first successful bid at warding off a serious challenger.

The Times escaped their first challenge by the rallying Hartwick club when the games were cancelled because of problems with the ice. And when they did finally meet Hartwick, they took their first loss of the season.

The Times also slipped past their first challenge from Halls when they won by default because of a shortage of Halls' players early in the season.

However, last Monday they proved themselves with a strong win over Halls and will be carrying that momentum into tonight's game against Hartwick.

Sid MacKeigan did the bulk of the scoring for The Times in last Monday's win. He scored three of the goals while Dave Dollo added another two.

Tom Haley scored twice for Halls while John Barkwell scored once.

Vasey 9, Rockcliffe 5

The Vasey squad vaulted itself out of the basement with an impressive upset win over the faltering Rockcliffe club. This was just the second win of the season for Vasey, but it was enough to move the team into fifth place ahead of Home.

Kevin Hamilton led the scoring for Vasey with three goals while Dean Hewitt and Cory Walker each added two.

Daryl Ward and Steve Crowe each added one to the tally.

The Rockcliffe's Bernie Upton scored three times in the ill-fated effort, while Lawrence Lougheed notched two.

Tonight's games begin at 7 p.m. with Hartwick challenging The Times. At 8:30 p.m. Halls meets the Rockcliffe, and at 10 p.m. Home meets Vasey.

35 group helps out

The Haliburton Hospital Expansion Fund received a present of about $2,300 from the Scenic Highway 35 Association just prior to Christmas.

Bill Kulas, Minden's representative on the hospital board, accepted a cheque from Joyce Broersma and Audrey Fountain. The cheque represents the money raised through the association's Bowlathon at the Carnarvon Lanes on November 7.

Carnarvon Lanes donated their facilities for the successful event, which saw association members bowling to raise money for the hospital expansion project. The money was raised through sponsorships of the bowlers.

There were also two draws for $50 vouchers and the winners were Jim Garbutt of Minden and Kerry Lock of Dorset.

The red carpet

The development of Haliburton County's winter tourism industry is moving ahead at an exciting pace thanks to a lot of hard work by volunteers, event organizers and our progressive Chamber of Commerce.

When winter comes to small tourist towns across Ontario, you can almost picture the local road crews sneaking out in the night and rolling up the streets to be stored away until the following summer. The activity in these towns comes to a dead halt. Many of the businesses close their doors for the winter as the owners migrate south to avoid the cold.

This is no longer the case in Haliburton, though. With events such as this weekend's Dog Sled Derby and the Yamafest planned for February, winter recreation is rapidly coming into its own as an active tourist season.

Included in this week's paper is a special Winter Recreation edition of This Month in the Highlands. Through this, we have touched on just a few of the many activities that make the Highlands an exciting place to visit all winter long. Scanning through this, you will see that winter is far from being an 'off season' any longer in Haliburton.

This weekend, the village of Minden will be extremely busy as racers and spectators come into the village for the fourth running of the popular Sled Dog Derby. Other events scheduled for this winter include Minden's winter carnival, the Ontario high school Nordic skiing championships, the Yamafest, and numerous curling bonspiels, hockey tournaments and figure skating competitions.

In addition to these events, there is the ongoing prospect of snowmobiling and cross-country skiing along the most scenic trails anywhere in the province. There's great ice fishing on the dozens of Haliburton Lakes and hunting in the hundreds of acres of Crown land.

Instead of rolling up the streets, Haliburton County has rolled out the red carpet for visitors to enjoy activities all year round.

Don't get stage fright, folks, but I believe we are living through what politicians like to call Historic Times. In years to come, when we're all ancient and doddering and decrepit, younguns yet unborn will toddle up to our rocking chairs, yank the Walkperson earphones from our wrinkled skulls and shout into our earholes:

"Tell us again, Grandpaw! About the Olden Days when people set fire to little white tubes in their mouths and sucked hot smoke into their lungs."

Yessir, it's been about four centuries since Sir Walter Raleigh strolled down a gangplank onto British soil, puffing on a cornucob, thus introducing the habit of smoking to the Old World. Ever since then, most of the world - New and Old - has been puffing and coughing and saving its spare change so that it could buy some fags to puff and cough some more.

It's been a long, expensive, painful and phlegm-filled trek, but I believe we are just about at the end of

Dream of a better Canada

Editor:

I woke this morning with a start. It seems in my dream that politicians and bureaucrats of the day actually got down to the business of running a great nation. (told you I was dreaming)

In my dream I had, with a somewhat reluctant eye, been keeping tabs on the business of banning smoking just about everywhere; then the surgeon general was on the scene, calling for a smoke free society by the 21st century.

A few thoughts flashed through my mind.

The scientists of the day were discoursing on a few truisms, the water in our lakes, not just the five biggies, but lakes and rivers on the whole are so full of chemicals and other pollutants they are incapable of supporting many forms of marine life. Including more fish that are a major staple of some peoples' diets.

And just, who, they debated is really responsible for this more than tragic condition? Surely not just the industrial and chemical companies. So it. I believe that the smoking habit is on its last gasp.

In a way, it's a pity, because smoking is one of the few subjects I can speak on with authority. I've done a lot of it. Mind you, I wasn't always a smoker. For the first 13 years of my life I indulged in second-hand smoke only (my Old Man was a puffer). For the next 27 years I became an active participant and smoked like the Number Four Smelter at Stelco. For the past four years I have been clean - or as clean as you can be after you've spent a quarter of a century bathing your innards in sucked-in carcinogens.

There's been a lot of changes in smoking in my time. When I started you could buy a packet of five Winchesters for seven cents. Inhaling a Winchester was like breathing in napalm, but the price was right, and we schoolkids were convinced it made us look unbearably rugged. Smoking was so innocent back then! I can remember ads that featured movie stars and even doctors complete with white smocks and stethoscopes exhorting us to 'get with it' by picking up a pack of Luckies or Export A's or Winstons.

Why, I'm so venerable I can remember when the Marlboro Man first rode over the horizon and onto our television screens, back in the mid-50's. The Marlboro Man - now there was a stroke of genius! Loping into our consciousness with his stetson pulled low and his shoulders hunched, looking like he was welded to the quarterhorse he rode ... all whipcord lean and hickory brown ... You mean I can look as sexy as that guy, just by smoking the right cigarette? Hey bartender! I'll have a carton of whatever the cow-poke is smoking!

All lies. All illusion. And we nicotine addicts bought it, lock, stock and Micronite Filter.

Imagine what would happen if someone 'dis-they consulted a few "real people politicians" - honest.

They (the real people politicians) confided most bureaucrats and politicians, plus the legal system lack the intestinal fortitude to, as prescribed by law, nail corporate and chemical companies to the wall. Yes they even admitted companies blatantly ignore the environmental laws of this nation with seeming impunity.

They also said this really shouldn't come as a shock to any cerebreating Canadian. Elections costs money, Canadians are aware that corporations and companies contribute money to different parties depending on the position a particular party takes.

Come the "real people politicians" who said, let's face it, Dow Chemical, for instance, is not going to support a party whose stand on pollution is one of strict adherence to the laws already in place, and, are demanding stiffer penalties. No - no, that would be corporate suicide.

Political parties require money, they make deals, companies continue to pollute, and we the people suffer the consequences.

All concerned agreed this made sense - now how to control it?

A brain wave strikes. Let's distribute some misleading information on the effects of second hand smoke, blow it all out of proportion and plow the real issues under the perverbial carpet.

The "real people politicians" were on the spot. As always though, self preservation won out. Yes they knew there were probably more cancer causing agents in one glass of water than in all the second hand smoke a person would ingest in any given day. They remained silent!

The "ideal people politicians" had to come up with an image saver - bingo - acceptable levels of pollutions, air and water. The idea was a smashing success, it had, in no time, become the norm of the day.

Trouble soon set in, people had to be told not to swim in certain lakes and rivers; on certain days it was advisable not to go out of doors. This message was primarily directed at the elderly, but the exercise buffs and joggers took the hint, just exercise and you could do more damage than good.

Vast amounts of money were expended to appease a few tunnel visioned people and this made things in general quite good press for the "real people politicians."

The dawn broke clear and bright, if you have a real desire to do something constructive about air/water pollution. Put the thumb screws to the P.M. right down to your local Reeve, to collectively, regardless of party affiliations, address the real cause of pollutants and cancer causing agents.

As for corporations who continue to pollute and are more interested in profit margins than in future generations - fine them 50% of gross year end profits before taxes. Politicians remain the same, always.

All parties agreed and were just about to pass a bill of such magnitude that it would be damn dangerous just to pass a little wind without fear of a major fine, that's when I woke up realizing even beautiful dreams must end and common sense just would/could not prevail.

A Christmas tragedy

Editor:

It was about 5:30 a.m. following Christmas night when the Little family were awakened by my wife and hurriedly left their Lochlin house which was ablaze and filled with smoke.

A neighbour opened their door to us as Dysart firefighters responded immediately but lost in their valiant effort. The house and contents burned to the ground.

Within the house, my wife had a heart attack and was assisted by firemen and the ambulance crew who rushed her to Haliburton Hospital where the efficient and kindly doctors and nurses gave her their undivided attention.

A few people asked me "Where was God?" God was ever-present. He caused my wife to have a dream of a fire and she was unable to get me out the window because I was too fat. In her frustration she awoke and smelled smoke, though the bedroom door was closed. She rushed to get the children out of their beds in a smoke-filled room with the fire outside lighting up the window. Then she alarmed her daughter Susan and husband Bill who was yelling "Everybody get out of here" when I was aroused.

Christmas ends in trauma

The celebration for the birth of the Holy Christmas baby ended in trauma and realization of the property loss and my wife's welfare took over. But Jesus had no house, no property, no armies, no navies and His Love conquered the world. He had no thought for material things.

But material things in the form of clothes, Christmas presents, toys, food and money started arriving immediately at the homes of the Ron Littles family and Bill and Janet Donnery. Offers came for help in Littles' General Store, offers to help put the house up, care for their livestock, offers of furnished homes and everything imaginable.

The people of Haliburton County opened their hearts and their pocket books and their homes and we want to thank them for their generosity and love. Grateful thanks go to relatives and friends in Stoney Creek, Hamilton, Toronto and many parts of Ontario - too numerous to mention.

OPP notes

During the period of December 11 to 27, officers of the Minden OPP Detachment investigated 32 general occurrences and eight motor vehicle accidents with two injuries which were of a minor nature.

Found property

On December 27, a bicycle was found abandoned on Hunter Creek Road. The owner of the bike has not yet been found.

Thefts

On December 27, two nine week old German shepherd pups were stolen from a Haliburton area residence. The pups had been tied up outside the house.

Fortunately a newspaper report would not end 'They were uninsured'. The Littles were underinsured. The adjusted for the Farmer's Mutual Insurance Company was on the site of the tragedy in a few hours and promised to send an advance payment.

A three year old came from Burlington with her Christmas toys to give them to her cousins. For the Lord said "A little child shall lead them."

To all these wonderful people and to God for sympathy and love and kindness, we give our heartfelt thanks and pray that the year 1988 is a good one.

WANT TO APPEAL YOUR ASSESSMENT?

You still have time to appeal your 1987 assessment if you feel your home or business property has been improperly assessed. Your assessment is important because the amount of property tax you will pay in 1988 depends on it. The assessed value of your property is multiplied by the municipal and school mill rates to determine your property taxes.

Notices of Property Valuation were mailed to property owners and tenants whose assessments have changed since last year. Open house information sessions were held in your area to give you the opportunity to ask questions and correct any errors.

The Assessment Roll was delivered to your municipality on December 22, 1987 and will be used to calculate the taxes you will pay in 1988. You can review the Roll at your municipal office during regular business hours. If you believe your property has been improperly assessed and you have not yet registered an appeal, you still have until January 12, 1988 to mail or deliver your appeal to the Assessment Review Board. And remember, even if you did not receive a Notice of Property Valuation, you still have the right to appeal.

Appeal deadline — January 12, 1988

The Assessment Review Board is an independent tribunal under the jurisdiction of the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General. It is intended to provide you with an additional opportunity to have your assessment reviewed if, in your opinion, it is not fair and equitable with the assessment of similar properties in your area. The Review Board is more informal and relaxed than a regular court of law. You may present your own case, retain a lawyer, or ask a relative or friend to speak as your agent.

To help you in filing your appeal, Notice of Appeal forms are available from the Assessment Review Board, your Regional Assessment Office, or your municipal office. You can also use the reverse side of a Notice of Property Valuation, or write a letter giving the property address and roll number along with your reasons for appealing. Appeals should be forwarded to the Regional Registrar of the Assessment Review Board at the address shown below.

In those parts of Ontario designated for French Language Services, you can appear before a bilingual (English/French) Appeal Board. Please check the space provided on your appeal form if you wish to use this service.

Derby

A shortage of snowfall caused some concern that the third running of the Minden Sled Dog Derby may have to be cancelled. And although the weather did not co-operate, the race went on as planned with a fresh snow cover trucked in from area fields.

The race was the most successful of the derbies to be held so far. There were 44 teams in the four-dog event and 37 teams in the eight-dog event.

Transplant

Glamorgan Township Reeve Bob McCausland returned home from hospital in Toronto with a heart that "is working great."

McCausland, who is now the County Warden, had undergone two heart transplant operations in late November and December of 1986.

Fund raising

The official start of the fund raising drive for an addition to the Haliburton Hospital was held at the Haliburton Legion hall on January 20. The audience of about 75 people was told that the community needed to raise about $240,000 to meet its share of the cost of the $1.375-million project. Donations at that time had already reached close to $23,000.

The municipalities also agreed on how to divide their shares for the new chronic care unit. Each municipality agreed to contribute to the fund according to its levy apportionment. The municipalities were asked to contribute a total of $266,400.

Building starts

Year-end building statistics showed a major surge in new construction in Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships for 1986. The total construction had almost doubled from the previous year to a dollar value of more than $4.3-million.

Although the number of building permits remained unchanged from the previous year, the value increased significantly.

Hyland Crest

A groundswell of support from residents at Hyland Crest helped reverse a County Council decision to dismiss Administrator Karl Samuelson.

The widespread support of the residents caused council to reconsider its decision to end Samuelson's employment at the Home. A special meeting was called, and a contract for Samuelson's services until the end of 1988 was signed.

March, 1987

Curling

Some of the top curlers in southern Ontario were in Minden to take part in the Junior Mixed and Intermediate Men's Provincial Championships held at the Minden Curling Club.

Eight teams in each division were involved in the four days of curling.

Tax hike

County rate payers were hit with a surprising 33.2 per cent hike in the county budget, which was approved at a meeting on March 18.

County council blamed two main factors for the huge increase. These factors are the county's commitment of $133,000 to the Haliburton Hospital expansion project and the $168,000 cost of establishing a county-wide welfare system.

Redmen win?

In just its first season of play, the HHSS Redmen hockey team won the Kawartha District Championships - almost.

The Redmen downed the Fenelon Falls Falcons 2 - 1 in the Kawartha finals, but a protest by the Falcons' management was later upheld giving the Falcons the win and title. The protest involved the eligibility of a Haliburton player to continue taking part in the game after receiving a five-minute boarding penalty.

P.C. Candidate

With a strong majority, Art Ward, owner of the Wig-a-Mog Inn, was chosen to lead the Victoria - Haliburton Progressive Conservatives into a yet-to-be-announced provincial election.

Ward beat out Valmay Barker and Anne Wilson at the party's nomination meeting in Lindsay.

April, 1987

Fire hazard

Unusually dry spring weather caused the Ministry of Natural Resources to put a ban on any open fires throughout the province.

During the first two weeks of May, Haliburton ministry fire crews were sent out to 12 forest fires in the county. A large fire near Kinmount destroyed 200 acres of forest and brush, while another in Stanhope Township burned 18 acres.

Huskies edged

An outstanding season ended in heartbreak for the Haliburton Midget Huskies as they were edged in the deciding game of the Ontario Midget C Championships.

The Huskies mounted a three games to two lead over Wheatley in the action-packed series, but lost the next two games. Wheatley took the best-of-seven series with a 4-1 win in the final game in Wheatley.

covered" the cigarette today. "Gentlemen I have a glorious new product. It tastes like hell, gives you headaches and makes your eyes water. It is more addictive than heroin and causes throat cancers, lung cancer, emphysema and heart disease. It's expensive, messy, a potential fire hazard and possibly fatal to innocent bystanders. Now what am I bid?"

Not only would cigarettes not be accepted,

Not only would cigarettes not be accepted, authorities would probably throw the discoverer in the slammer, along with the rest of the drug pushers.

But as I say, smokers are a dying breed, in more ways than one. They are finding themselves increasingly ostracized in buses, trains and airplanes.

Businesses are instituting smoking bans, as are restaurants and theatres. It's getting harder and harder to find fellow nicotine junkies at parties or a sympathetic cabbie who lets you light up in the back seat. The message is clear as it is insistent; the smoking habit is on the way out.

I predict that ashtrays will become as obsolete as spittoons in our lifetime. I'll go further. I predict that within a couple of decades at most, smoking will be little more than an historical curiosity - an obscure history question perhaps, in the 2010 AD edition of Trivial Pursuit. "What American President actually appeared in cigarette ads back in the mid-20th century?" Answer: Ronald Reagan, for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Speaking of trivial tobacco facts, here's one for you to file away: Whatever happened to David Millar, the actor who portrayed the original Marlboro Man?

Answer: He died in 1987.

Of emphysema.

New Legion

After months of hard work, Minden area veterans officially filed their application to form a Minden Legion Branch.

More than 100 people were on hand at the ceremony in the basement of St. Paul's Anglican Church as the veterans made application for a charter. There was no trouble in meeting the minimum membership requirement of 15. Membership application totalled 49 by the end of the meeting.

New motel

Despite hearing a number of complaints, Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships Council gave its support to a plan that would see a new motel built in the village.

"No matter how much we may object to the motel, we need the development it will bring to the area," Reeve Sinc Nesbitt said at a special meeting held in the council chambers. Nesbitt said young people are leaving Minden because there are few jobs here. He said developments such as the one proposed could help boost the economy and the employment situation.

June, 1987

Bugs

Forests in many areas of the county were showing early signs of defoliation from an infestation of Bruce Spanworms and Spring and Fall Cankerworms.

The worst defoliation seemed to be occurring around the Village of Haliburton.

More bugs

With the Bruce Spanworm chomping its way through the county's greenery, the local Ministry of Natural Resources and County Council members were getting prepared for the eventual invasion of Gypsy Moths.

A number of council members and ministry staff paid a visit to the Irvine Lake airstrip, just outside the county boundaries, where a war is being waged on the hungry pests.

Ride for Sight

The village of Minden was invaded by an estimated 2,500 bikers in a bid to raise money for the Retinitis Pigmentosa Eye Research Foundation.

Ideal weather prevailed throughout the weekend as participants in the Ride took part in a variety of rally events at the fair grounds.

Lake pollution

Despite media reports of rampant pollution in two county lakes, the Ministry of the Environment assured the problem was highly exaggerated.

A Toronto newspaper and a Barrie radio station both reported that Halls Lake and Mountain Lake were suffering from serious pollution problems. However, the ministry said the lakes were not suffering to any measurable extent. The ministry did, however, recommend that septic systems on the lakes be upgraded.

July, 1987

And more bugs

The aftermath of an infestation of Forest Tent Caterpillars in the county could be seen in downtown Minden as store owners swept the carcasses of the moths from the sidewalks each morning.

The number of moths in the area was said to be an indication of the extent of infestation to be expected in the spring. Millions of moths could be seen clustered around street lights at night, and their bodies would almost cover the sidewalks by morning.

HTC closes

Federal government requirements placed on the operation of the Haliburton Hospitality Training Centre, were blamed for the centre's decision to shut the facility down.

After five years in operation as a centre to train people to work in the hospitality industry, the centre closed its doors for good, blaming government rules that specify that potential students must be "severely employment disadvantaged" to qualify for the courses. This disqualified most of the people who were interested in the courses.

July, 1987

Royal visit
The Minden Wild Water Preserve was graced with the presence of a royal visitor as Sarah, the Duchess of York, went on a canoe trip along the Gull River.
In an effort to maintain some privacy for the Royal visitor, the canoe excursion was kept a secret and the preserve was patrolled by police. While the British press's efforts to photograph the event were thwarted, The Times did manage to capture some distant shots of Sarah paddling along the Gull.

August, 1987

Drought
The extended heat wave and drought that prevailed throughout the summer helped cause area lake levels to drop to record lows, but the sales of such items as air conditioners, electric fans and even ice cream cones was soaring.
July's weather set a 20-year record with its soaring temperatures. The average temperature for the month was almost 22 C.

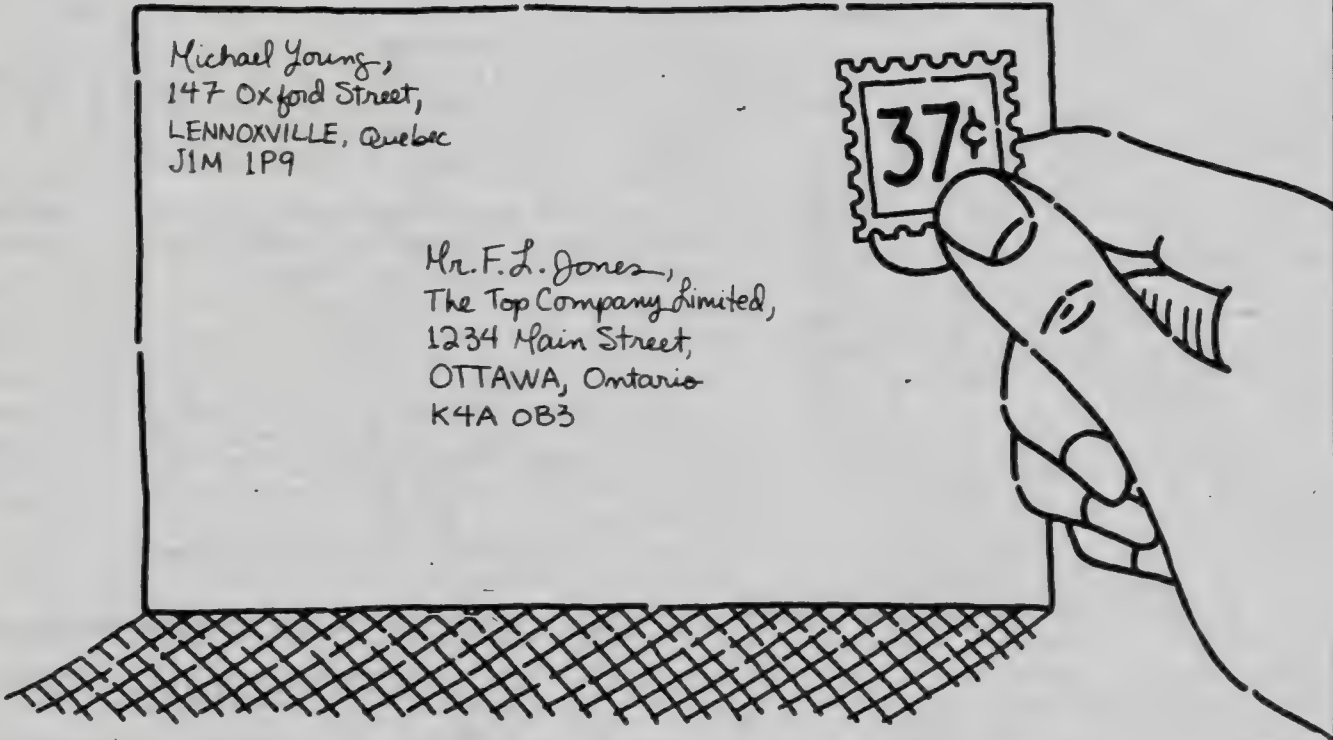

Election call
Within minutes of Premier David Peterson's call for a September 10 election, the campaigning in this riding had begun.
Incumbent John Eakins and PC candidate Art Ward were on the campaign trail immediately. They were joined later in the race by NDP candidate Ivan Moore and then FCP candidate Diane Roblin-Lee.

Bass Derby
Minden kids pulled a total of 53 pounds of rock bass from the Gull River during the annual fishing derby sponsored by the Business Improvement Area.
Jeremy Phillips and Simon Prentice had the top catch of the day, bringing in more than eight pounds of fish.

Fair
The 123rd annual Haliburton County Fair drew hundreds of visitors to the Minden fair grounds for a weekend of fun and friendly competition.
In spite of the extremely hot and humid weather, the fair was a popular attraction as the parade and events drew many spectators.

Faster, more efficient
Canada Post's automated high-speed equipment processes mail quickly, efficiently and economically. But, this equipment can only handle certain letter sizes. Oversized letters must be sorted by hand, which is slower, less efficient, and more expensive.

OVERSIZE LETTER RATE
• Within Canada
Consumer mail
An Oversize letter for personal mail is defined as any mail that is larger than any one of these dimensions:
• 255 mm (10") long
• 150 mm (5 7/8") high
• 5 mm (3/16") thick

Business mail*
The Oversize rate applies to any business mail that does not conform to the maximum and minimum standards below, or that does not include the correct Postal Code.
The maximum and minimum sizes are as follows:
• Maximum standard size is: 255 mm X 150 mm (10" X 5 7/8")
• Minimum standard size is: 140 mm X 90 mm (5 1/2" X 3 5/8")
• Maximum standard thickness 5 mm (3/16")
*Business mail is any mail with postage paid by meter impression or postal permit.
• To the U.S.A.
The Oversize rate must be paid on all First Class letter mail (consumer and business) having any one dimension exceeding the following sizes:
• 255 mm (10") long
• 150 mm (5 7/8") high
• 5 mm (3/16") thick
Return to sender
Before you mail, be sure to include the Postal Code and check these standards to ensure that postage is sufficient. Any letters that do not have sufficient postage affixed will be returned to sender.
The postal system works best with your cooperation.

Moth Eggs Found

Confirming fears that the Gypsy Moth would eventually make its way into Haliburton County, the Ministry of Natural Resources discovered egg masses laid by the destructive insect.

It was expected that the insect's numbers will grow rapidly across the county in the next few years.

Eakins wins

John Eakins, Liberal incumbent for Victoria-Haliburton, was part of the Grit wave in the provincial election that saw 95 Liberals elected to form the government.

Eakins enjoyed strong support from all corners of the riding as he captured almost 16,400 votes. PC candidate Art Ward, surprisingly, was well off the pace with 5,900 votes to finish second behind Eakins. NDP Candidate Ivan Moore placed third with almost 4,300 votes.

Charter Night

More than 400 people were at the Minden Community Centre to see the birth of Canada's newest branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Branch 636, Minden, officially came to being when the Branch Charter was delivered by Provincial President J. Kobolak. Legion members representing most of the Branches in the area were on hand at the ceremony and showered the new Branch with gifts and donations to help it get started.

October, 1987

In an effort to rid Hyland Crest of a scabies infestation that had plagued the home for almost a year, close to 200 people were given a treatment for the annoying skin irritation.

Hyland Crest was closed for more than two days while residents and staff were given the treatment.

Road Construction

Royal Paving won the $795,000 contract to do the reconstruction work along a short section of Bobcaygeon Road in Minden.

The road work began almost immediately, causing some inconvenience to motorists passing through the construction area. The work was halted temporarily while Ministry of Environment approval was sought for the storm sewers. However, the construction reconvened in just a few days.

Promotion

Victoria-Haliburton MPP John Eakins was given a promotion of sorts as Premier David Peterson appointed him the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

A former councillor and Mayor in Lindsay, Eakins felt his previous experience put him in good stead in understanding the concerns of municipalities. Eakins was the Minister of Tourism prior to his appointment to the new Cabinet post.

November 1987

ASES is priority

Extra classroom space at Archie Stouffer Elementary School was set as the top priority for capital spending by the Haliburton County Board of Education.

The board applied for ministry funding for seven new classrooms and a full-sized gymnasium at the Minden school. In addition, the board applied for funding for additional classroom space to be constructed at one of the Haliburton Village schools.

Ambulance Shift

In a surprise move, Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships was asked to assume temporary management responsibilities for the ambulance service that Dysart et al Townships had given up.

Dysart council had decided to abandon its management responsibilities a week earlier and the Ministry of Health gave Minden the option of picking up the service.

Highlander

Cliff Dawson of Haliburton was given one of the greatest honours the Haliburton Highlands have to offer when he was named Highlander of the Year at the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dawson was instrumental in seeing the new Parklane Seniors' complex in Haliburton to completion as chairman of that project.

Hunting Fatalities

In what was described as one of the worst deer hunting seasons in memory in Haliburton, two hunters were killed by their own guns and another was seriously wounded when he was shot by a hunting partner.

In addition, another two hunters died of heart attacks while hunting in the county.

December, 1987

Airport Improvements

Stanhope Township Council was given a shot of optimism when a representative of Transport Canada attended a meeting displaying a "very encouraging" tone about the long-awaited funding for upgrading of the municipal airport.

Stanhope has completed numerous studies in hopes of obtaining a $1 million grant to upgrade the facility and have the runway lengthened and paved.

Samuelson resigns

After a year of working as the Administrator of Hyland Crest, Karl Samuelson notified County Council that he would be moving on.

Samuelson, a popular figure with the residents, had fought off a dismissal by the county earlier in the year. He is now moving to a larger facility in the Sudbury area.

New Warden

Glamorgan Township Reeve Bob McCausland was elected to Haliburton's highest political office when he was chosen to replace Murray Fearrey as County Warden at County Council's inaugural meeting.

In his acceptance speech, McCausland said the priorities for 1988 will be environmental issues. These include fighting for better control of the waterways as well as addressing the escalating landfill problems.

COUNTY OF HALIBURTON
ROAD DEPARTMENT
SNOW REMOVAL

The Highway Traffic Act RSO 1980, C198 - S147, Revised 1982 states "No person shall park or stand a vehicle on a highway to interfere with the clearing of snow". A constable may have the vehicle removed from the roadway and stored at the owners' expense.

Section 157 states "No person shall deposit snow or ice on a roadway without permission in writing from the road authority responsible for maintenance of the road". The penalty on conviction is a fine of not more than $50.00.

The co-operation of all motorists in these matters would be appreciated for efficient winter maintenance of County Roads and the safety of others.

kid's korner

by Jean Lacey

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun!

Q: Why did the boy put a frog in his sister's bed?

A: He couldn't find a mouse.

Q: What is so fragile you can break it with a whisper?

A: A secret.

Q: If a red house is on one side of the street and blue one on the other, where is the white house?

A: In Washington.

Soon time for tax returns

by Doreen Hawman

The time when you complete your 1987 Tax Return is fast approaching, but did you file for 1986? Just by filing and completing Schedule 11, a family with a net income not exceeding $15,000 could qualify for a credit of up to $100 for a married couple and $25 for each dependant under 18 years of age.

Families with a greater net income may be eligible for a lesser credit amount.

If you did not file because you had no taxable income to declare, you may still be eligible for this credit. If you did file and neglected to claim this credit, but believe you meet the eligibility criteria, write to the nearest District Taxation Office and request an adjustment.

For anyone wishing to file, the Haliburton County Information Centre has a supply of 1986 Tax Returns and will be most happy to assist with its completion.

Just bring with you the necessary information required, the following check list may be helpful: T4A(P) Canada Pension, T4A Old Age Security, T4U Unemployment Benefits, TFA1 Family Allowance, T4 Employment Earnings.

For further information or to have a Tax Return completed, contact the Haliburton County Information Centre, situated in the Drag River Municipal Building, Maple Ave., Haliburton. The centre is open Monday to Friday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. or call 457-2733.

If you are in the Minden area, the centre located in the Municipal Building, Milne St., is open every Tuesday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. or you may call 286-4100.

Lapine paintings featured at gallery

by Elene J. Freer

The Rails' End Gallery begins the new year with an exhibition of oil and watercolour paintings by Andre Lapine (1867 - 1952). Born in Russia, Lapine studied art at the Imperial Academy of Petrograd, now Leningrad. At the age of 40, he immigrated to Canada, settling in Toronto. Lapine was one of Toronto's most successful and popular artists with paintings hanging in the National Gallery and most of the major private collections in the city.

The majority of Lapine's works celebrated the animals and rural lifestyle found in Minden and Haliburton. His most popular ones, however, were those of horses. Lapine continued to paint until he was well into his 80's. In his later years, he spent more and more time in Minden, staying at the home of his friend, Frank Welch. He died there in 1952. Welch was an avid collector of Lapine's paintings bequeathing them to the Municipality of Anson, Hinton and Minden. The exhibit runs from January 8 until February 6.

Also, beginning in January, the Rails' End Gallery will be hosting free film nights on alternate Wednesday evenings beginning at 7:30 p.m., however, schedules may vary. "The Heatwave Lasted Four Days," a fast moving murder mystery starring Gordon Pinsent and "The Ugly Little Boy" will be shown on January 6. Come down and enjoy your Gallery this winter. There's lots to do!
